[This last is in a later hand, and shows the change in spelling the name.]

WILLIAM SHIRMAN & Alice Hurd were married, each to other, 26 November, 1690. Child—Edward, b. 20 March, 1691.

1689 he was in Saybrook. He died, presumably, about 1712, 24 or thereabouts of that year, leaving a Will, executor of the last will and testament of "Mr. John Jordan, late of Saybrook," sent off to the deceased's daughter Mary her part of the land of her father at Trumbull place. (Saybrook Records, vol. 2, p. 372.) Paul Noyes in his Records, vol. 2, pp. 472 and 483, and vol. 3, p. 346, it appears that John Jordan had a son James, and a daughter Mary who married John Ingham, Nov. 2, 1718. (Saybrook Records, vol. 2, p. 441.) He also had a daughter Hannah, or appears from Saybrook Records, vol. 3, p. 110, when James Jordan conveyed land, Apr. 1, 1710, to "my loving sister Hannah Biss, of Saybrook, afore-said, widow and Relique of Samuel Biss, late of Saybrook." Hannah married first, Samuel Biss at Haddam, who died before 1716, and married second, in 1717, John Sturtevant. It is also considerably certain that John<sup>d</sup> Jordan had a daughter Catherine, who married William Bushnell, Apr. 10, 1701. This view is strengthened by the fact that Mary Jordan, on the same day upon which William's father sent off to her a portion of the land of her father, or above described, deeded to William Bushnell (husband of Catherine) two parcels of land "belonging the wife of that land given to me by my Honored father, Mr. John Jordan, late of Saybrook, deceased" and "one third part of that wherein commonly called Paul Noyes, that was my Honored Father's Mr. John Jordan's afore-said."

THOMAS<sup>3</sup> JORDAN married Dorothy ———, and had the following children:

- i. THOMAS<sup>4</sup> b. 1689, d. Mar. 4, 1761, m. Jane L. 1689, Andrew Lott, who d. Oct. 28, 1792.
- ii. Mary, b. Aug. 27, 1692.
